PLAN SIBERIAN ROAD.
SURVEY PROPOSED ROUTE.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
TACOMA, March 24.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Though nearly seventy years old, Capt. John J. Healy has spent two months of severe Yukon winter inaugurating surveys for the Trans-Alaskan-Siberia Railway. Healy and his party arrived in Dawson two weeks ago after fifty-nine days of continuous work during which they ascended White River from its mouth to the forks of Ladue Creek.
J. P. Watson, chief engineer, says the expedition reached to point 15 miles above the mouth of White River.
That took it to a point well beyond the American line. During two-thirds of the time the thermometer was 40 to 60 below zero. No time was lost because of the weather. Four moose were killed.
Engineer Watson declares the route is feasible for railway lines. Every man was in fine health. The party intended to leave Dawson last week to continue its work. It included eight men and two Indian mulemen. Capt.
Healy desires to complete the reconnaissance work across the greater part of Alaska before the snow melts.

an interlocutory decree one year ago.

miners were buried alive in an avalanche of snow at the Britannia mine on Howe Sound, forty miles north of Vancouver, yesterday. Four were taken out dead; four were rescued.

Head of Fight for Freedom, Speak.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, March 24.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Alexis Aladin and Count Nicholas Tchaykovsky, leaders in the movement to free Russia from oppression, told an audience of 3000 at the Auditorium today the story of the wrongs which their people have suffered and now quarreled because he brought a young woman home with him, and also because he refused to pay his mother enough money for
the household.
The son denies his guilt, but blood
is on his hands. He is a steele-dore and rigger, and lived alone with his mother.
The son was seen entering the house at 8:30 o'clock last night, partly intoxiated. Soon afterward, Mrs. Christiansen, a next-door neighbor, asked him where his mother was, and he replied he did not know.
Later Mrs. Christiansen knocked at

At 9 o'clock this morning, seeing no signs of life, she proceeded to investigate. Evidence of a struggle in the kitchen led to a search, and the find-

The murderer had been very cool, as he removed nearly all evidence of the crime. The neighbors said the mother and son quarreled because he brought a young woman home with him, and also because he refused to
pay his mother enough money for
the household.
The son denies his guilt, but blood
is on his hands. He is a steele-
dore and rigger, and lived alone with his mother.

For Eastertide

Coulter Dry Goods Co

224-228 SOUTH HILL STREET. 219-229 SOUTH BROADWAY.

rustworthiness in every article, no matter how low the price, is a feature to which too much emphasis can hardly be given--illustrating anew the firmly-established fact that this store offers the best the world affords at the price, and that price at all times the lowest for the quality.

Exquisite Suits for Easter

Some of the suits are very elaborate, some of them are as plain as a pipstern. And there you are! It really turns on the question of what you want, what is most becoming. The range of choice seems boundless--whether you base judgment on choice, on number of styles, or on prices.

We've dozens--really--between $15 and $35; these beautiful and exclusive suits or costumes at $35, $37.50, $45 and up gradually to $197.50.

We'll tell you today of four styles at $37.50--from many, just as a little hint of our readiness for Easter.

- Street suit of light gray plaid; Pony jacket, trimmed with plaits and silk braid, 3/4 sleeves; box plaited skirt.

- Street suit of brown check material; fitted coat in tailored style, with full length coat sleeves; cuffs and collar trimmed in dark green; plaited skirt.

Combination Undermuslins

You who've seen only the meager assortments of combination undermuslins that other stores have to show, will be delightfully surprised with the wealth of styles on display here. # DEPUTY AUDITOR DEAD.

Francis Stansbury, chief deputy to City Auditor Mushet, died yesterday morning. Mr. Stansbury came here a year or so ago from Newark, N. J. He had been a prominent man in the commercial life of the East, particularly among accountants. He was employed for a long time in one of the largest accounting firms in Philadelphia, having 200 men in his employ. Mr. Mushet considered himself very fortunate to be able to engage Mr. Stansbury for the Auditor's office. Mr. Stansbury had been in poor health for some time, being a sufferer from cancer of the stomach. He leaves a widow and two young children.

Among the Professions.

Doctors, dentists, nurses and persons engaged in other professions will find a 2 or 3-line card printed in The Times regularly of great advantage. "Hurry" calls will be a sure result, and the cost of a standing announcement is trifling compared with the return.

MONROVIA MONOGRAPHS.

MONROVIA, March 24.--The trial of Prof. E. E. Taylor which has been occupying the last three Saturdays, will be brought to a conclusion Monday evening. All the evidence for and against the deposed supervising principal of the Monrovia schools is in the hands of County Superintendent Keppel, and after the lawyers argue the case he will be ready to make his decision. The affair has created quite a furore in the community. The Pacific Electric has completed the laying of rails to the Saxept wash and the heavy machinery to be used in the deep cuts at Duarte will be run in Monday. It is expected that at least 200 men will be put to work in these two cuts. It is the heaviest work of this kind along the line.

The Cash Value of Husbands.

Mrs. Olive Russell Burns, with the divorce court as the agent in the case, has just traded an unsatisfactory husband for $50,000. The alternative of a husband or a legacy was presented to her in the will of her father, who, disapproving her choice, left her the money on the condition that she part from Mr. Burns. His daughter did not # hesitate, though she declines to admit her motives were purely mercenary.

Burns, who is an actor-manager, was, according to his wife, jealous and penurious. She said the man who would continue small attentions after marriage and treat his wife with the same politeness he bestowed on any good-looking stranger was a husband she would prefer to any millionaire. Her father also instructed that Mrs. Burns should give up the stage, though his legacy was not dependent on this. The sacrifice of her helpmate has, however, been all that she was willing to make. She declares after a rest in the South, she will take up her theatrical career again.

"Ninety-five per cent. of the women in Chicago would sell their husbands for $50,000," remarked Mrs. Burns, succinctly, "but art is different." (Chicago dispatch to the New York World.

OPENING MAY BE DELAYED.

Rain Brings Grief for Baseball Magnates.

San Francisco Grounds Are in Bad Condition.

St. Mary's Team Will Play the Looos Today.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the event of the rain continuing for a couple of days this week, an effort will be made by some of the league's officials to have the opening of the season of the Pacific Coast League postponed for one week, which would mean that the season would open in Los Angeles and San Francisco Saturday, April 6, instead of next Saturday.

While it was not desired to take this step unless absolutely necessary, it will be impossible for the local management to get the grounds in shape for play unless there is a change in the weather conditions. For that reason, it is believed to be the best plan to call for a telegraphic vote of the league delegates the middle of the week on the proposition of a postponement.

Last week Gleason was able to get in one day's work on the grand stand and bleachers at Fourteenth and Valencia streets, and nothing was done on the diamond, where haste is needed. It will take a week in view of the heavy rains, to put the field in condition.

"I don't wish to call for a postponement unless compelled to do so," said President Cal Knecht, "but have decided unless there is better weather by Tuesday or Wednesday that I will ask the league directors to agree to a postponement."

As the Portland team has been unable to do much training at Salinas, because of the perpetual rain, and McClellan has been experiencing difficulty in getting his men together, it is thought the Beavers will welcome an opportunity for a postponement, and that Los Angeles and Oakland will agree.

ST. MARY'S TEAM HERE.
NORTHERN CLUB PLAYS TODAY.
The St. Mary's baseball team consists of only a lot of young college boys, but when it comes to "attacking there," they can show a lot of men the right thing. This means that while the rain scared the New York Giants away from Los Angeles in disgust, it can't make the St. Mary's boys back up. They were a day late in getting here, but they are now in the city, and the rain and floods, and could not play against the Los Angeles team yesterday owing to the rain.

They were scheduled to start last night with the idea of playing against the San Francisco team in Bakerfield, but have passed up that scheme and will stay here until they can play one or two games with the locals. They intend to play today if there is no rain, and if there is a storm they will stay over another day and play the locals tomorrow. The spirit is the spirit that wins ball games, and the fans should turn out today or tomorrow and cheer their boys on to a reception, for they are not only dead game, but they are ball players that any one can afford to pay money to see in action.

WHITE SOX THROW OFF.
FIVE MEN OUT OF WORK.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
CHICAGO, March 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Sox have fallen among the White Sox, even this early in the season according to information from a big league quarters. President Comiskey has asked for waivers on Roth, Harte, Towne, O'Neill and Dundon. The selection of this quintette as the victims of the cleaver will cause considerable surprise, but there are reasons. Doubtless, for the old Roman's action, Weldon and Quinn, the hard hitters from the Western League, are to be kept. Weldon succeeding O'Neill as extra outfielder and Quinn as slugging Dundon as utility infielder has been retrograding in his batting for two seasons, and is probably due for the minors.

Freeman and Cheney, the new pitchers, are to be given a tryout, and Lejeune will hardly be dropped till the team gets home.

Seals Beat Bakersfield.
Bakersfield, March 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] San Francisco won from Bakersfield by a score of 9 to 1 today. The locals borrowed Joy and Street for a battery, but the Seals made nine hits off Joy and won easily. Ashley, recently from Arizona, pitched a speedy game for four innings, allowing no hits. Harrod and Hickey alternated in the box and Bakersfield made seven hits. Danny Long and the other San Francisco men came down today.

Ball Player Ill.
George Stoney, a well-known Throop Institute athlete, baseball and football player, is seriously ill at the California Hospital, where he is to submit to an operation for appendicitis.

High Bowling Scores.
During the past week the following high scores in bowling and Jim Jones, respectively, were rolled on Morley's alleys:

C. A. Smythe, 202; Thomas Salvers, 200; W. J. Torg, 238; M. Kenneth, 200; 212; A. Anton, 201; Joe Anderson, 225; 200; 218; F. L. ## ST. VINCENT'S JUNIOR BASEBALL TEAM.

STANFORD NINE TAKES SLUMP.

ROOTERS FEAR DEFEAT BY CALIFORNIA TEAM.

Liste's Fielding and Poor Batting Cast Gloom Over Cardinal Campus. Players Injured Are Recovering but Have Not Attained the Same Proficiency.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 23.—The first successful games of the Cardinal baseball team and the consequent enthusiasm of the students over the prospects of a Stanford victory in the intercollegiate series have not been so noticeable in the last three weeks of practice. The baseball squad has been experiencing a decided slump of such duration that the college fans are beginning to be alarmed at the situation. Reports of the development of a rapidly-improving team across the bay do not make matters any better. Coach Langman is chafing under the restraint imposed by the continued rains, and the first week of good baseball weather will be the occasion for some severe work for the members of his squad.

The team has been unfortunate in the temporary loss of all three catchers, which necessitated a considerable shifting of positions in the recent practice games. "Stump" Stott had a finger split about two weeks ago and has been out of the game since. At the same time Daily was laid up with a cracked jaw, from which he is now almost recovered, while Gannon, the freshman candidate for the position at the home plate, was stricken with appendicitis and has been out of the game since. Coach Langman is chafing under the restraint imposed by the continued rains, and the first week of good baseball weather will be the occasion for some severe work for the members of his squad.

The trouble is that the "varsity" still retains its weakness of former years, and cannot hit well. The batting record is much better than that of last season, but it always happens that on the day when the players hit the ball they are poor at fielding, or in hard luck, and manage to lose the game in spite of a good showing. One great drawback to the team of last year is the lack of the "long" home run. It used to be said that the Stanford team lacked the spirit to play a losing game, and it was true that the "varsity" "laid down" as soon as the opposing team gained the lead. But this year the fighting spirit is always present, and the "varsity" last moment when, to all appearances, their opponents had things securely clinched. It is this spirit which is expected to play some brilliant games.

The line-up continues unchanged from that of a month ago except for the temporary shake-up because of the shortage of catchers. Stott and Goodell do the sash work with Winner and Smith as substitutes. The latter is a first-rate pitcher but is ineligible against U.C. having transferred from the University of Washington last September. Presley is unopposed at first base. Sampson and Cadwalader alternate at second and shortstop and Kenney Fenton continues to star at third. In the field the leading candidates are Scott, Owen, and Daily, who is hard pressed by Wirt. The freshman who bats when the team is in a tight place, is ineligible under the new rule.

Many Bowling Entries.
NEW YORK, March 24.—The tournament of the National Bowling Association will be held at Atlantic City from March 25 to April 8. The entry list shows that 120 five-men teams, 260 two-men teams, and 487 individuals will compete.

Gymnastics Contests.
NEW YORK, March 24.—Contests for the national gymnastics championship of the American Athletic Union will be held in New York next Saturday.

Women's Tourney Will Be Played on Wednesday and Thursday Should Weather Be Fair.

The golf tournament at the Annandale Club links will be held Wednesday and Thursday of the coming week. Arrangements are complete for the meet and it is hoped to have a goodly number of contestants on the greens when the play begins. Unless rains set in the links will be in prime condition and everything will be favorable for the making of high scores.

Riverside and San Diego will be well represented when the tournament opens as will also the Annandale club. Handsome silver trophies, four in number, have been provided for the successful competitors. All entries should be in before Tuesday morning. They may be sent to either the Green or the Maryland.

HUESTON RETAINS TITLE.
Easily Defeats Keogh of Buffalo at Continuous Pool, Making a Run of Forty-six.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.)
NEW YORK, March 24.—Thomas Hueston of St. Louis retains his title as the world's champion continuous-pool player, as the result of the final night's play with Jerome Keogh of Buffalo.

Hueston last night made 193 to 154 for Keogh. This makes the final score: Hueston, 600; Keogh, 457. Hueston's best breaks last night were 46 and 37, and he made two scratches. Keogh's high break was 32, and he also made two scratches.

DEFINITION OF A KISS.
A German Savant Makes Extraordinary Effort to Frame a Good One.

One dictionary informs the breathless seeker after truth that a kiss is "a form of salutation expressed by the contact of the lips." This definition, though clear and concise, leaves something to be desired: Is it probable that every mother's son or daughter, who has some idea of what a kiss is, in spite of the reluctance of the language Solons, but is doubtful if any one can give the idea more appropriately than the lover who penned the epistle from which two flints against one another.

A kiss is, as it were, a seal expressing our sincere attachment, the pledge of our future union. But at the same time, an audible language of a living heart; a present, which at the same time it is given, is taken from us; the impression of an ardent attachment on an ivory coral press; the striking of two flints against one another; a crimson balsam for a love-wounded heart; a sweet bite of the lip; an affectionate pinch, which is given in some time it is before taken from us. They may be sent to either the Green or the Maryland.

TRACK MEET SATURDAY.

It appears that some one at Stanford University got his fingers crossed at the wrong place just before he sat down to send the "news" here that the Stanford-U.S.C. track meet, scheduled here for next Saturday, had been postponed at the request of Coach Holmes of U.S.C.

This is wrong in several different ways, the principal one being that the meet HAS NOT been postponed, and furthermore that Holmes never asked to have it called off. He was so much surprised yesterday at the statement that he wired to Stanford about it, and received the assurance that the Stanford team, consisting of fifteen men, would be here next Saturday morning.

This comes from L. L. Sales, manager of athletics at Stanford, and must be correct dope.

The track meet will be held on Bovard Field at 10 o'clock next Saturday morning and the Stanford team will be selected from the regular 'varsity' squad that is to meet Berkeley April 20.

It is expected the meet will be finished by noon and in the afternoon the Stanford rowing team will meet the San Diego team at Naples.

Holmes' Intercollegiate meet will be held April 6, and entries have already been received from nine schools.

"Tiger" Smith, who gave Gunner Moir a terrific fight recently.

NO REFEREE CHOSEN YET.

Tommy Walsh, Eytton and Burns Are Possibilities.

Palmer Declares He Is in Good Condition.

Prelim Men Are Lauder-Barry and Fields-Woods.

The referee for the Sullivan-Palmer fight tomorrow night has not yet been selected, according to Manager McCarey, but from all accounts this is the only matter in connection with the big fight that is not settled. All of the principals in the three scraps declare they are ready to fight now and reports from the various camps lead one to believe they are in good shape.

Sullivan, of course, is always there with the condition, or at least, he has always shown that he was fit when he went into the ring to fight Sullivan. The sports effect to believe that Palmer is not on edge, on account of not being acclimated, and in having such a short time in which to work, owing to bad weather. For the benefit of these it should be said the Palmer just came out of the rain from his home in Los Angeles and from the fact that he does his road work in the rain shows that the weather does not stop him. In addition to this he is willing to fight Sullivan, winner take all, and his manager will bet a chunk of money on the side. This should make people believe that Palmer is satisfied with his condition. As the men are to fight at catch weights, neither will have to train up or down.

Just who will referee will probably be determined on today, but Tommy Walsh and Charley Eytton are the ones spoken of. Both are capable men and even Tommy Burns must be considered for he expects to arrive here tomorrow night. There is no use guessing who will officiate for it is up to the fighters and Manager McCarey to decide on the man.

The program is to consist of a curtain raiser between Lauder and Barry at about 10:30. Then the main event, Sullivan and Palmer, will be at 11:00. Frank Fields and Kenny Woods at 11:45. Then the main event, Sullivan will weigh about 182 and Palmer about 181. The betting is said to be 10 to 6, with Sullivan the favorite, but this is a false price.

BAD FOR BOXING.
BOSTON ON THE RAMPAGE.

It looks very much as if the Boston Athletic Club, the leading amateur organization of New England, will be forced to abandon boxing owing to the strict enforcement of the statutes at Boston. If this is brought about it will mean that the national boxing championships, which are scheduled to be held off by this club in April, will be called off, so far as Boston is concerned. The Boston Athletic Club and the Rookwood Athletic Club have been the mainstay of boxing the past fifteen years east of Philadelphia. Many of the best fighters have been turned out by the former club, including Jimmy Walsh, the little bantam, and Mike "Twinn" and Jack Sullivan.

Whittier Basketball.

What promises to be an exciting basketball game will be played tomorrow evening at the Whittier College gymnasium between the Whittier High School team, holder of the High School Championship, and the Orange County, and the Riverside High School team, champions of the Orange County.

The game will determine the High School champion of the Orange County. The game will be played together for four years with practically the same line-up. The Whittier High School team will give an exhibition preceding the big game.

ANNANDALE GOLF.

Women's Tourney Will Be Played on Wednesday and Thursday Should Weather Be Fair.

The golf tournament at the Annandale Club links will be held Wednesday and Thursday of the coming week. Arrangements are complete for the meet and it is hoped to have a goodly number of contestants on the greens when the play begins. Unless rains set in the links will be in prime condition and everything will be favorable for the making of high scores.

Riverside and San Diego will be well represented when the tournament opens as will also the Annandale club. Handsome silver trophies, four in number, have been provided for the successful competitors. All entries should be in before Tuesday morning. They may be sent to either the Green or the Maryland.

HUESTON RETAINS TITLE.
Easily Defeats Keogh of Buffalo at Continuous Pool, Making a Run of Forty-six.

NEW YORK, March 24.—Thomas Hueston of St. Louis retains his title as the world's champion continuous-pool player, as the result of the final night's play with Jerome Keogh of Buffalo.

Hueston last night made 193 to 154 for Keogh. This makes the final score: Hueston, 600; Keogh, 457. Hueston's best breaks last night were 46 and 37, and he made two scratches. Keogh's high break was 32, and he also made two scratches.

DEFINITION OF A KISS.
A German Savant Makes Extraordinary Effort to Frame a Good One.

One dictionary informs the breathless seeker after truth that a kiss is "a form of salutation expressed by the contact of the lips." This definition, though clear and concise, leaves something to be desired: Is it probable that every mother's son or daughter, who has some idea of what a kiss is, in spite of the reluctance of the language Solons, but is doubtful if any one can give the idea more appropriately than the lover who penned the epistle from which two flints against one another.

A kiss is, as it were, a seal expressing our sincere attachment, the pledge of our future union. But at the same time, an audible language of a living heart; a present, which at the same time it is given, is taken from us; the impression of an ardent attachment on an ivory coral press; the striking of two flints against one another; a crimson balsam for a love-wounded heart; a sweet bite of the lip; an affectionate pinch, which is given in some time it is before taken from us. They may be sent to either the Green or the Maryland.

BRIDGE OVER THIRTEEN HUNDRED FEET LONG.

El Monte has a rival in this San Gabriel structure.

For several years El Monte has had the distinction of having the "long bridge" over the San Gabriel River; but it now has a rival in the new bridge over this stream, just opened on Fall Leaf avenue, the main foothill highway up the San Gabriel Valley.

The Board of Supervisors has accepted from the Mercerean Bridge and Construction Company this new bridge, which in reality is simply a long extension of the bridge which was built about twenty years ago, but which proved inadequate.

When the first structure was built on this highway about two and a half miles from El Monte, it was considered perfectly sufficient; but there followed the wet seasons, when the San Gabriel River rose and cut up strange pranks with its turbulent currents; and one day the travelers found that the river had cut out of its former bed and run clear around the westerly end of the bridge. Several people had close escapes from drowning at this time.

It was finally it was determined that the only practical thing to do was to build the extension which has now been opened to public travel.

The original bridge was 800 feet in length and cost about $200,000. The extension is 550 feet long, and the whole proposition, including the first bridge, represents an outlay of county money reaching almost $500,000.

It rests on concrete columns, steel faced, which extend ten feet below the river bed.

It is located 750 feet below the great concrete bridge which the Pacific Electric Company is constructing for its new Covina line.

Eventually, this bridge will usurp the title of the El Monte structure as the "long bridge." The Board of Supervisors is planning to cut a length of 900 feet of El Monte bridge, at its east end, and to make a full length of 1,350 feet, to be put in to protect the westerly end of the bridge. It is now many feet longer than the Southern Pacific bridge, located 500 above it across the San Gabriel River.

SAVAGE MAKES GOOD HIS BOAST.

HIS DIVES ARE NOT MOLESTED BY THE POLICE.

Other Disorderly Houses Raided and Their Inmates Obligated to Give Bail, but the Immunity Promised by the Former Councilman Seemingly Prevents Police Activity.

Tom Savage's boasted monopoly on vice was further protected by a fourth police raid on the newly-opened Balleino district last night. Four women were taken into the Central Police Station. They deposited bail and went back to the scene of the arrests, police accompanying a series of raids which have been made on the same district during the past week, came a number of arrests on Aliso street. Soliciting was the charge in every case.

It is now one week since Savage gathered into his saloon the French parasites of his ward and warned them against deserting him, telling them at the same time that those who stayed with him had protection. The police department during the seven days which have elapsed has carried out Savage's prophecy and justified his boast by attacking everything save his own sanctuaries. Now Savage is boasting of his power over the city authorities.

The Balleino arrests have accumulated a number of cases in Police Court, all of which were on Saturday morning. On April 17, in spite of the arrests, Paradise alley has remained open day and night. The women have on each occasion deposited their bail and gone back to open their places.

Savage at present has what might be termed a corner on protected women. His street is now the only one where women may break the law with impunity. As a result a peculiar state of affairs has come into existence.

This condition is caused primarily by lack of room for painted women. When such women as these unfortunate ones who have been so frequently raided in the Central Station hunt quarters, they usually do it through the men with whom they consort. But whether they do it alone or through the men of their species they always look for a place which is "safe." In some cities such protected places get immunity through tribute paid to police officials. In Los Angeles the Arlington and the Belmont are the only two buildings which are known among the people of the half-world as secure from police interference. The reason for this is not known. But rooms in these buildings are naturally in great demand. As a result women have paid premiums or bribes for these rooms. In some instances amounting to $200 and $300. Politician friends of the parasites with whom these women live have even interested in getting rooms on these terms.

Lack of quarters in these buildings has been bringing about these houses has done two other things. For one, it has resulted in women being driven out on small prices. This of course always brings a second bonus for one room. That it is done without apparent reason in the woman's behalf, honest is indicated that one creature of the half-world has been twice reported to police officers by victims as a thief, and she was, two nights ago, still in the Arlington.

Another result of the cramped quarters and the bonus system is the fact that several scores of these women live in the retail district of the city. These women are known to the police by their names and their room numbers are listed in the records of the department. Patrolmen every day report the existence of disorderly houses south of First street and west of Main street.

However, no arrests for vice have been made since the social evil have been made save those of Balleino women and Aliso street. The police might get evidence against one creature of the half-world, but the way was the wife of a survivor, and her husband had spent all his money and even pawned his instruments in his efforts to trace her that he might reclaim her from the life which she led.

As a consequence of the manner in which Savage's apparent boasts were verified, the Frenchmen of the district have during the week past flocked to his saloon as a rendezvous. Just at present a police campaign of evidence gathering is known to be on against the parasites, and for this reason they are naturally even more solicitous than ever for their own welfare. The rumor has been going back and forth among this class of individuals that those who desert on other terms than those which Savage will suffer in this forthcoming raid, while there will be plenty of lodgings for the women, those who are clinging to the promise of immunity offered by the square-jawed boss.

ELECTIONS IN BRITISH ISLES.

THE PROPERTY QUALIFICATIONS.
LONG RESIDENCE REQUIRED.

Having Persons of no Fixed Abode, Lovers and Many Others Are Disfranchised—Rules Are Rather Technical but Most Respectable Workmen Get Votes.

An election in Great Britain is a rather different thing from what is understood by the same thing here. Here every male citizen or male person, in some States females as well, who has declared an intention to become a citizen, voter; there only residents of at least a year in a district with property qualifications can vote. Here a man can never vote more than once—that is not legally; there if a man has sufficient property interests in two or more districts he may vote in each, elections being held on different days to enable him to travel around and exercise this privilege. Here the candidate must be a resident of the district; there a resident of London may represent a Dublin constituency.

In Great Britain registration is always an essential preliminary to voting. And you can't change your residence between the date of registration and election unless you want to lose your vote. After closing the books they are passed up to the "reviewing barrister," an attorney appointed to go over the lists and pass on any protests that may be made regarding a voter's qualifications. Many names are thus frequently stricken off the rolls. The provisions of the election laws require that a voter must either possess a certain amount of property or he must rent and control a house or room, according to whether he be a man of family or single, of a minimum value fixed by law, the rent paid being made the basis of computing this. The question of control, as exemplified by decisions of reviewing barristers, is rather technical, it being held that the voter must have his own latchkey with the right to go and come at all hours, and to determine who shall be allowed to enter the house or room.

The purpose and effect of the law is to disfranchise the drifting population, the element known to us as "tramps," or "bohos," the workmen who never acquire a permanent residence, and the colonizers who, in America, are sometimes sent to close districts to carry an election for one or the other party. The qualification is low enough to admit almost any respectable working-man unless he becomes disfranchised through some intricate interpretation, and in that respect he is no worse off than some of the professional classes. For instance, a physician attached to the hospital and making his headquarters there, was disfranchised because he neither owned or rented or controlled any lodging, as required. Several Catholic priests have also been disfranchised because they lived in community at the parish house or at a monastery under superior control. In some constituencies there is almost no change in the vote each election. In close districts a single vote counts for a great deal, such lands as from one side or the other as we see here are unknown in any particular district. In rural constituencies where every voter is known, the two parties leave no stone unturned to get any one who may be abroad to come home, or of course the same is done here, but its importance is not apt to be so great.

Last August an election for a member of Parliament was held in one of the border constituencies of Ulster. It was closely divided, the result being a Unionist victory by less than a score of votes. Father Pomeroy, a Catholic priest who had left the district to look after the election, made the trip all the way to Ireland to vote for the Nationalist candidate. He had barely time to reach the scene, cast his ballot and catch the next steamer back. Two army officers stationed in India obtained leave of absence and returned to vote the Unionist ticket. Civil service men, Malta, Ceylon and China, business people who had gone to Australia, and others who were employed in England and Scotland, all came back to vote. So little change was there in the voting population it was assured accurately within a few votes what the result would be weeks in advance. In fact it depended wholly upon the number of absentees each party could induce to return.

In this connection it should be noted that it is illegal for any party, candidate or friends to pay a voter to return, or even to reimburse him for his traveling expenses. I was told that if it were discovered that this had been done it might be sufficient to invalidate the election and unseat the member. What would happen to our San Francisco municipal officers, or to the late lamented legislators at Sacramento, or even to some of our more or less esteemed Congressmen, if these rules were adopted and enforced in America. Johnnie Bull cannot see why, for instance, a man residing in New York, should be permitted, immediately on coming to London, on simply saying that he intends to be naturalized some day, to take part in the government of a country of whose laws, language and customs he knows nothing and cares less. They do things a little better in this respect than we do in some States.

What would it be worth to you, Mr. Business Man, to have your trial balance the first day of every month with absolute accuracy? Figure it out, if you can, in dollars and cents, and then tell us frankly if you would not gladly pay a machine that cannot make errors in addition, subtraction, multiplication or division, and that will save one-half to two-thirds the time required for such work.

$150 FOR THE DUPLX COMPTOMETER

All we ask is the opportunity to prove to you by actual test the usefulness and economy of the Comptometer in your business.

When such institutions as Carnegie Steel Co., Pittsburgh; Marshall Field & Co., Chicago; New York Central & Hudson River R. R. Co.; Prudential Insurance Co. and the United States Navy Department each use from 33 to 232 Comptometers, it is not because it costs less than some other adding machines, but because it does the work quicker.

For about the commission paid a salesman on some adding and listing machines, you can buy a Comptometer. Of course, you cannot expect to get quite so much hot air with the Comptometer, but you will get the best machine for adding. It will do a whole lot besides adding, too; on any kind of multiplying and dividing, from the simplest extensions to the most complex or large multiplications or divisions, it will save two-thirds of the time as compared to any other known method.

Write for pamphlet and free trial offer. Better still, let us demonstrate the merits of the Comptometer, and its application to your office work.

HOUSES ADORN.

Entry Into Holy City Commemorated.

Episcopal Church Confirms.

It is the custom of the Episcopal Church to hold a service of confirmation on the first Sunday of Lent. The service was held at the Cathedral of the Holy City yesterday morning, and was attended by a large number of the faithful. The bishop, who presided, gave a sermon on the subject of the "Entry Into Holy City," and the service was a most impressive one.

NEW BETHLEHEM INSTITUTION, DEDICATED YESTERDAY.

by David, thus indicating David as the Messiah as being indicated in the words of David.

It was for many years actively identified with management of a number of California's famous hostilities. In co-partnership with his brother, Henry H. Pearson, they successfully managed the Russ House, the Cosmopolitan, and the Baldwin hotels of San Francisco, and he was one of the first managers of the Arcadia Hotel of Santa Monica.

For the past ten years he has suffered a great deal with rheumatism. About two months ago he contracted a severe cold which developed into pneumonia, from which he never fully recovered, being confined to his bed ever since. Saturday he seemed exceptionally well and death was not expected. At 7:15 p.m. he fell asleep without a word or struggle, never to awaken again.

His sterling integrity, his strong character and his many kindnesses will always be remembered by his many friends. Gentle and patient, a loving husband and an indulgent father. He is survived by his wife, his son, Edward W. Pearson, his daughter, Mrs. Newton Moore, Mrs. Paul C. Peppers and his brother, Alfred A. Pearson.

HAPPY DAY AT CHRIST CHURCH.

BISHOP CONFIRMS AND RECTOR ADMINISTERS BAPTISM.

Impressive Service Marks Entrance of New Members—Parish Flourishes Under Care of Rev. Baker P. Lee—Rt. Rev. Joseph H. Johnson Delivers Eloquent Sermon.

An interesting Palm Sunday service took place yesterday morning at Christ Church, Episcopal Church, corner Flower and Tenth streets.

The service was presided by the bishop, who gave a sermon on the subject of the "Entry Into Holy City," and the service was a most impressive one.

NEWEST WORK OF BETHLEHEM.

BUILDINGS AT RAILROAD CENTER ARE DEDICATED.

Dana Bartlett Opens Branch of the Remarkable Institutional Work Which He Has Established in Eighth Ward—Central Point for Over Two Thousand Workmen.

A new point in "Bethlehem's" star was added yesterday through the dedication of the new Bethlehem buildings at Railroad and North Main streets, by Rev. Dana Bartlett. This plant represents an outlay of $15,000.

This is a strategic point which the Bethlehem Institution workers have long desired to occupy, and they will at once enter into a field of activities which is certain to show results for human betterment. A general institutional work on lines similar to the parent institution conducted by Dr. Bartlett at Vignes and Ducommun streets, is to be carried on, with Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Conroy in charge.

BISHOP JOHNSON.

izing of a class of lads and maidens and little children.

Those baptized yesterday make a total of forty who have been received into the church by Rector Baker P. Lee during Lent.

The sermon yesterday was by Bishop Joseph H. Johnson. The theme of his discourse was the temptations of Christ and the weapons He used to foil the attacks of the tempter.

of life's struggles. Character, he said, is the result of the choice one makes at each dividing point in life. The right choice may lead to heaven and a cross, but the final reward is paradise. The choice of selfish ease, indulgence, pleasure and sin leads to eternal punishment.

The confirmation class yesterday numbered sixty-three. These new members of the church were nearly all young lads, maidens and little children.

But there was one gray-haired man who knelt with her own sturdy young son.

When all had received this rite of "laying on of hands," the bishop made a special address to the class, telling them he wanted all to connect in their minds forever, one word with this occasion, "Consistency." If they wished to learn what it means to live the life of a Christian, to which they had devoted themselves, they must look for instruction in the "Sermon on the Mount." It is not harder now, he explained, to live a holy life than it was when the sermon was preached.

PASSING OF A PIONEER.

Charles Edward Pearson Who Came Round the Horn Subsums to Long Illness.

Another of California's early pioneers passed out with the death of Charles Edward Pearson, who died Saturday.

Mr. Pearson was born in Lancaster, Pa., 1833. In the year 1851, at the age

New Bethlehem Institution, dedicated yesterday.

"The Inspirational Church," and during the discourse he said:

"Today the spirit of life-giving is possessing the hearts of men to such an extent that we may say that we are living in a new age."

"I am in favor of changing the name of our church. I would like to have it called an 'Inspirational Church' rather than an 'Institutional Church.' The call of the hour is not for more institutions, but for a greater inspiration pervading all; it is to bring all life into a relationship with the deep things of God."

"When the church deteriorates to such an extent that it becomes an end in itself, it has lost its spirit. Rather, it is to be considered as a means. It does not matter so much what the preacher may say, of whom the audience may be composed, if the worshiper but open the heart and allow the divine presence to take possession of the life. Then every heart will be alive with God. Every bush will be a burning bush. Then there will be a cloud by day and a pillar by night for a guide."

"This inspiration from the Divine presence may come in the closet, or on the mountain side. The second essential in the Inspirational Church is the inspired leadership. This leader is not necessarily the brilliant young graduate from the seminary; not necessarily the one who has traveled extensively, and has a wide knowledge of literature, art or sociology, but one who has been on the mountain and realizes the power of the spiritual message. But in an inspirational church you will also need the inspiration of fellowship; the sincere touch of heart with heart.

"Such an inspirational church will be an insurer to cleaner living. It will inspire to rescue work, but it will also inspire to preventative measures—measures to safeguard men, so that there will not be so much necessity for rescue work. Much of the sin and wretchedness could, I believe, be prevented if the best men and women in the world had more of God's love in their hearts and were better students of social conditions.

The church today is to study causes and deal with them intelligently. Such a church is a creator of good. It must be imbued with the spirit of love. Where love is, there God will be also. That is the ideal of this type of church is holding forth to the world today. It must be in sympathetic touch with all of life. It cannot be an inspiration when to the well favored individual it gives the best, and leaves to the poor clod man whatever may be left. Its power lies in daily ministrations to daily needs. My ideal for this place, is that it shall be a place where souls may be touched with the presence of God, and where men and women who greet the Divine may come into a deeper experience."

CALIFORNIA'S ORANGES.
Not Only Possessing the Market of This Country but Also Thought Well of in England.

[New York Commercial:] How California has taken the lead as the orange-producing State of the world is best told in the brief but wonderfully expressive statement of the carload shipments of the fruit. Ten years ago California was shipping 7000 carloads a year. That figure has risen to thirty-two thousand cars annually from there at present. Producers profit about $20,000,000 on the crop now, and as much more goes to laborers and the railroads. Altogether it is quite a snug sum to be produced in a comparatively small area in one State from a crop that is almost a certain success every season and for which there is an unfailingly hungry market. The California orange is well thought of in Great Britain, as well as all over this country, and only its cost prevents it from being superseding the small and inferior orange of the Mediterranean consumed by the English. Aside from the Florida orange and the most excellent variety raised at Jaffa in Palestine—and neither of these count largely in the markets now on account of their scarcity—the California growers have the field. Indeed, Florida growers are finding the grapefruit more profitable, and as the orange groves are gradually given up to its cultivation, the demand for California fruit will be increased, and that State will have to develop more of its fertile lands.

PRICE & TEEPLE PIANOS

The Best For the Money

Price & Teeple pianos are built by men who have been trained by long apprenticeship to see in a piano something more than a combination of intricate mechanism and polished wood. They have succeeded in imparting to their pianos an indefinable personality, which is higher than mere mechanical excellence.

The action is splendid, delicate, responsive; the cases are works of art. The Price & Teeple piano is fine enough for the aristocratic home and modest enough in price for the home of moderate income.

We confidently believe that no matter where you may search, you will not find a piano selling at $300 to $425 that will equal the Price & Teeple, all things considered.

We invite your careful inspection, knowing that these instruments are worthy of your consideration. Our easy payment system is exceptionally liberal. Ask about it.

You Can Be Cured of Catarrh

trying to secure relief from Catarrh and Hay Fever. These are local diseases caused usually as a result of a neglected cold. However, they are very dangerous if allowed to continue. Catarrh and Hay Fever can be cured quickly and permanently by the use of Ormsby's nasal douche and throat tablets. These tablets dissolve in warm water and are used as a douche and gargle. One visit to a physician will cost you at least one dollar, whereas one dollar will purchase enough of the tablets, together with a glass douche, to give you 25 treatments. Bad breath, headache, sore throat, loss of hearing, etc., are all results of catarrh as well as consumption. Read what this man says. This is only one of the hundreds of such letters we receive:

J. H. ORMSBY, Los Angeles, Cal.
My Dear Sir:—I suffered extremely with catarrh of the nose and throat, and was about discouraged in trying to find some remedy that would give relief. Some one recommended your nasal douche tablets and I concluded to give your remedy a trial. Much to my surprise and gratification, I was cured immediately and I conscientiously believe that your tablets will relieve and cure any case of catarrh. Wishing you continued success, I am, very truly yours, A. H. RIGGERS.
